Most Americans Say: Teen Pregnancy Prevention is Not Enough
Youth Deserve All the Skills to Help Them Thrive

What the people want

Should high school students Avoid all the Consequences of sex or just teen pregnancy?

All 68%

Just teen pregnancy 32%

Should middle school students Avoid all the Consequences of sex or just teen pregnancy?

All 72%

Just teen pregnancy 28%

Current federal policy is short-sighted

Current policy gives 95% of sex education Funding to programs that only focus on teen pregnancy prevention rather than on All the possible risks of teen sex.

Pregnancy Prevention 95%

Preventing all the risks 5%

A Broader Vision = Healthier Teens

Source: July 2015 Americans Speak Out Survey. Research conducted by Barna Group